Aggettivi (Unità 110–118)

Esistono svariate regole che riguardano gli aggettivi. Le più importanti da ricordare sono:

- Si usano gli aggettivi prima di un sostantivo (a blue door, a fantastic book) o dopo be e alcuni altri verbi (I'm hungry. You look tired.).
- Nelle domande, si può mettere l'aggettivo dopo un sostantivo o un pronome (Is your teacher nice? Is she nice?).
- Sono invariabili (It's a different colour. They are different colours.).
- Si forma il comparative degli aggettivi aggiungendo -er o more (It's older. It's more interesting.), e il superlativo aggiungendo -est o the most (It's the oldest. It's the most interesting.).

1 Riscrivi e unisci le frasi in modo che il significato non cambi.

   0 We live in a house. It's modern.
   _________________________________________________________________
   1 I've got a bike. It's red.
   _________________________________________________________________
   2 I've got a laptop. It's new.
   _________________________________________________________________
   3 They live in a village. It's very small.
   _________________________________________________________________
   4 I bought some apples. They're delicious.
   _________________________________________________________________
   5 I met a girl last night. She's beautiful.
   _________________________________________________________________

2 Scrivi le domande usando i suggerimenti dati e la forma corretta di be.

   0 How was the film?
   _________________________________________________________________
   1 I like your earrings.
   _________________________________________________________________
   2 How was your holiday?
   _________________________________________________________________
   3 Why did you go home early?
   _________________________________________________________________
   4 How was your holiday?
   _________________________________________________________________
   5 How was school today?
   _________________________________________________________________

3 Completa le frasi con il comparativo di maggioranza delle parole in corsivo.

   0 Italy is bigger than the UK.
   _________________________________________________________________
   1 Football
   _________________________________________________________________
   2 The Coliseum
   _________________________________________________________________
   3 Gold
   _________________________________________________________________
   4 Italy
   _________________________________________________________________
   5 Skiing
   _________________________________________________________________
   6 Fruit
   _________________________________________________________________

4 Completa le frasi usando una parola da ciascun riquadro. Usa la forma superlativa degli aggettivi.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>big</th>
<th>big</th>
<th>high</th>
<th>long</th>
<th>poisonous</th>
<th>valuable</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>animal</td>
<td>city</td>
<td>country</td>
<td>mountain</td>
<td>painting</td>
<td>planet</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

   0 Jupiter is the biggest planet in the solar system.
   _________________________________________________________________
   1 The Po
   _________________________________________________________________
   2 Ben Nevis
   _________________________________________________________________
   3 Ukraine
   _________________________________________________________________
   4 La Gioconda
   _________________________________________________________________
   5 The tree frog
   _________________________________________________________________

5 Scrivi delle frasi in cui confronti l’Italia e il Regno Unito. Usa gli aggettivi in corsivo.

   0 The UK is smaller than Italy.
   _________________________________________________________________
   1 The UK is bigger than the UK.
   _________________________________________________________________
   2 The UK is hotter than the UK.
   _________________________________________________________________
   3 The UK is more expensive than the UK.
   _________________________________________________________________
   4 The UK is more mountainous than the UK.
   _________________________________________________________________
   5 The UK is good at football than the UK.
   _________________________________________________________________

6 Scegli l’alternativa corretta.

   0 Harriet’s got brown hair / hair brown.
   _________________________________________________________________
   1 I’ve got a red bike / a bike red.
   _________________________________________________________________
   2 The film was bored / boring.
   _________________________________________________________________
   3 She lives in a beautiful Tuscan / Tuscan beautiful villa.
   _________________________________________________________________
   4 Let’s not go swimming. The sea is too / enough cold.
   _________________________________________________________________
   5 I’m not enough rich / rich enough to buy a sports car.
   _________________________________________________________________
   6 Phew! It’s such hot / so hot today.
   _________________________________________________________________
   7 It’s such a lovely day / so lovely a day.
   _________________________________________________________________
   8 I’m not interested / interesting in football.
   _________________________________________________________________
   9 Canada is more big / more bigger / bigger than the USA.
   _________________________________________________________________
   10 Books are better / more better / more good than films.
   _________________________________________________________________
   11 I’m not going out tonight. I’m such tired / too tired / tired enough.
   _________________________________________________________________
   12 Is dinner ready / Is ready dinner / Ready is dinner?