Student’s Book Answer Key

2 | Motivation

Working with words

1

1. ‘A reward’ in business often refers to something financial though it can mean anything you receive because of something you have done. ‘An incentive’ refers to something that makes you want to work harder. This may be a cash reward or perk of some kind but the incentive could also be wanting to please someone or to make the company more successful.

2. Answers will vary according to students’ jobs and types of business.

2

The text is negative about cash incentive schemes but is positive about incentive schemes which offer non-cash rewards.

3

1. They help companies achieve their goals by improving performance, boosting staff morale and fostering company loyalty.

2. They give employees real symbols of achievement which can be shown to others and are a ‘guilt-free reward’. They are seen as having a greater value and can benefit the employee’s family.

3. They can just ‘disappear’ or be spent on paying bills (so mean less than non-cash rewards).

conversation 1: 1 The first speaker uses a number of the tips including 1, 3, 9 and 10. 2 The conversation fails because the second speaker answers briefly and makes no effort to develop the conversation (tip 6).

conversation 2: 1 Both speakers follow a number of the tips including 2 (repeating names) and 5 (following conversation). 2 The conversation is successful because of this.

conversation 3: 1 This conversation is a good example of two people finding a shared experience (tip 4) and tips 1, 5, 6 are used. 2 The conversation is successful because of this.

conversation 4: 1 Adam quickly starts describing problems and reasons for being depressed (tip 8). 2 The conversation is unsuccessful because of this and Adriana quickly uses an exit strategy.
Hello, I saw you … but I didn’t have a chance to speak to you. I’m Harry.

Well, it’s been nice talking to you. / You don’t mind if I go and get myself a coffee? / See you later.

Hi, I don’t think we’ve met. I’m Paolo from …

Hi, nice to meet you. I’m Sonia from …

That’s amazing! / What a coincidence!

Good evening … / How lovely to see you here.

She responds by saying: Oh dear. / Oh, I’m so sorry to hear that.

Look, I have to go … / Catch you later.

Practically speaking

My parking ticket runs out in five minutes.

But I’ll come back when I’ve seen them.

I missed lunch because of the conference call.

Excuse me, I really must go and speak to him.

I’ll call you tomorrow though.

Discussion

1, 2, 3

1. Reasons may include: low pay, poor working conditions, lack of feedback and praise, no rewards or incentives, no prospect for promotion.
2. In the case of Palmate Hellas, the HR Department is advisory so departments are not following guidelines for motivating staff. This suggests that it is important. (Students may be able to describe any guidelines at their company.)
3. Low priority is given to personal development of staff, and hours are fixed (no opportunity for flexible working).
