D Hello, Sarah. Can I just check your personal details, please? Your surname is Watson, spelled W – A – T – S – O – N?
D How old are you?
S I’m thirteen.
D And how are you feeling today?
S A bit better, thanks.
D Good. Well, you’ve had a really bad chest infection. How long have you been ill?
S 10 days. But I’ve been in hospital for 2 days.
D Yes, that’s right. Have you still got a cough?
S Yes, I have, doctor.
D OK. Can I check your temperature, please? … No. You haven’t got a temperature. That’s good. Do you have a stomach ache?
S Yes, I do. But it isn’t too bad.
D OK. I think that’s because of the antibiotics. You need a lot of antibiotics for a chest infection. I think you can go home this afternoon. I can tell your parents to come to the hospital.
S That’s great, thanks.
D Good. Come back and see me next week when you’ve finished the antibiotics.
S Yes, doctor. Thank you.

L Hi, Rory. Did you see The Simpsons on TV last night?
R No, I didn't. Is it a good programme?
L Yes, it's great! You should watch it! It was really funny.
R I watched a programme called Science for Kids. It was interesting. Then I watched Newsground. Do you know that programme? It's the news for children.
L I don't know it. Do you always have to watch serious programmes? Don't you like any funny programmes?
R Of course! I saw a good film at the weekend – Night at the Museum 2.
L That sounds serious, too!
R It wasn't. It was a comedy! Very funny.
L I saw a good film, too. It was called The Day the Earth Stood Still.
R Well, that doesn't sound like a comedy …
L No, it wasn't! It was a science fiction film. It was great, but a bit scary. And I'm going to see another one called The Maze Runner next week.
R I like science fiction films. But I love action films best. James Bond is my favourite.
L Of course. Everybody likes James Bond!

   N  We can go by hovercraft from Dover! We can take the car on it.
   D  True. We can also get the train. We can take the car on that, too.
   S  Oh yes, and the train goes under the sea!
   N  Cool! Or we could take a plane. That’s really quick.
   M  And expensive. Well, I like the ferry. I love boats!

3
   M  Neville, what would you like for your birthday?
   N  I want to go up in a hot air balloon!
   M  Oh, Neville. Be serious.
   N  But I am! Or I’d like to go in a helicopter. That would be fantastic.
   M  Why can’t you wait until you’re eighteen? Then you can become a pilot and have your own plane!

   B  Cool. Oh can I borrow your mobile? I left my mobile at home and I should call my dad because it’s late.
   G  Of course. But you can’t use it in here.
   B  Yes I know. I’ll use it in the hall. I’m hungry. Do you want to share this sandwich?
   G  Thanks but you mustn’t eat that in here.
   B  Why not?
   G  It’s the library. Look at the sign: no food or drink.
   B  Oh I didn’t see it.

1 Gary went to New York. His holiday was a week long.
L = Liz  G = Gary

L  Hi, Gary! Did you have a good holiday?
G  It was fantastic!
L  Where did you go?
G  New York!
L  Wow! Lucky you! How long was the journey?
G  We got on the plane at nine o'clock in the morning, and the flight took eight hours. But we arrived in New York at twelve o'clock! New York time is five hours behind London time!
L  Well, I think I understand! Where did you stay?
G  We stayed with my uncle. He lives in Queens, to the north of Manhattan. We took the ferry every day over the water to the centre of the city.
L  That sounds fun. Did you go up the Empire State Building?
G  Yes, I did. It was great. The view from the top was fantastic.
L  What else did you do?
G  We visited some famous places like 5th Avenue and Times Square. I knew them from films!
L  Of course. Did you go shopping?
G  Yes! I bought some cool clothes. Oh, and we went roller skating in Central Park! That was fun. Our holiday was only a week long, but it was very busy!
L  Sounds great. Can I come with you next time? I'd love to see New York.

G  How was your holiday in Switzerland, Harry?
B  It was fantastic! I put my pictures on my blog. Here they are. You can see them on my mobile phone.
G  Oh cool. So where are you in this picture?
B  That's me. I'm skiing.
G  Oh yes. I can see you. Did you enjoy it?
B  Yes, it was fun.
G  Is it easy to ski?
B  No, it isn't. I had a lot of lessons before I did it alone.
G  I want to try it. Is that your dad in the cable car?
B  Yes, he's in the cable car with my little sister, Anne.
G  Where's your mum?
B  She's in the café with my older sister, Sally. There they are. Sally is wearing glasses. They don't like skiing. Sally is reading a book and mum is playing with Joel.
G  Is Joel your baby brother?
B  Yes
G  He's so cute!

I talked to my sports teacher - Mr Brown. He loves athletics, and he’s my trainer now. He’s taught me a lot!

What’s your favourite event in the heptathlon?

I’m the same as Jessica Ennis. I love running best.

And what’s your least favourite event?

Shot put! It’s really difficult! But I’ve practised a lot, and now I’m much better at it!

When’s your next competition?

Next month, in July. I’ve trained hard and I hope to win it!

Good luck!

Hello, Amber. Can you tell me a bit about yourself? How old are you?

Hi, I’m thirteen.

And when did you become a heptathlete?

Three years ago. I started training when I was ten.

Really? Why did you decide to do that?

Well, I like lots of different types of sport and I didn’t know which one to choose. Then, when I was nine years old, I saw a TV programme about Jessica Ennis. And that’s when I decided to do heptathlons like her.

So Jessica Ennis is your role model?

Yes, she is. I think she’s fantastic.

So how did you get started?

Come on Johnny!

He’s running too slowly. He’s not going to win the race.

Oh look … he’s running faster now!

Go Johnny!

He’s winning! He came first!

I = interviewer  S = Sandra

I Hello, and welcome to the programme. Today we're in London for the final of 'Young Chef of the Year'. Let's meet some of the young competitors. Hello, what's your name and how old are you?

S Hello, I'm Sandra and I'm thirteen.

I What are you cooking at the moment?

S I'm making a beef pie.

I Mmm, lovely. What ingredients are you using?

S Well, beef, of course. Lots of vegetables – peas, carrots, onions, tomatoes. And potatoes and cheese on the top. I need some flour for the gravy, too.

I It smells delicious. Good luck! … And our next competitor is …?

T My name is Tom and I'm fourteen.

I What are you making, Tom?

T Fish cakes.

I And what ingredients do you need for them?

T Salmon, tomatoes, onions, potatoes and garlic. I sometimes use prawns too, but not today.

I Sounds great. The best of luck!

T Thanks.

I Hello. What's your name?

J Jasper and I'm fifteen.

I And you're making …?

J Pizza! My dad is Italian! I've got flour, tomatoes, cheese and garlic, and some Italian sausage to put on top.

I It looks fantastic. Good luck! … Well, these are just three of the young people taking part in this competition. They've got just two hours and …

R = Ryan   H = Hannah

R Hello, Hannah! Did you get my email yesterday evening? You didn’t answer.
H Hi Ryan. I’m sorry. I didn’t look at my emails. I was too busy. I was reading a fantastic book.
R Oh, which book?
H The first book in the Famous Five series. It’s called Five on a Treasure Island.
R I don’t know that one. What’s it about?
H It’s about four children and a dog. It’s the school holidays. There are two boys and two girls and they’re all staying together by the sea. There’s a small island nearby in the sea near their house. They discover a mystery and they want to know what happened!
R What’s the mystery?
H The children find out that there was some treasure on an old boat, but the treasure is lost and they want to try and find it.
R Sounds good.
H And yesterday evening I was reading a very exciting part.
R What happened?

1 B Let’s watch a sci fi film. Which one shall we buy?
   G What about this one?
   B Divergent? Oh yes that was on at the cinema last year. It’s an adventure film.
   G I saw a poster for Home behind the till. It’s a sci fi film but it’s animated.
   B What’s it about?
   G It’s about creatures from space! But they aren’t scary, they’re cute.
2 G Hi Tom, where’s Dad?
   B He’s in the kitchen.
   G What are you reading?
   B I’m reading a book about mysterious places.
   G That’s interesting.
   B Look at this picture.
   G Where is it?
   B It’s in Peru. These are the Nazca Lines. They’re giant pictures of animals and birds in the desert. It’s a mystery how they got there.
3 G Hi Mark. Is this computer free?
   B Yeah.
   G What are you doing?
   B I’m researching Sasquatch for my science project. I’ve got science next lesson
   G Cool! What’s that?
   B That’s sasquatch. It’s a creature that lives in North America.
   G Really? Is that a picture of it?
   B Yes
   G It looks like a very tall, hairy monkey!
